

Peyton Sammons | pspub@gmail.com | 207.456.2345 | Portland, ME 04103

Dear Friends,

We are proud to present to you our Fall 2024 Catalog list, which includes books on biographies, cooking, family and relationships, history, humor, music, nature, sports, and social science topics, such as feminism.

To order any ARC or galley bound copies, please fill out the checklist sheet at the bottom of this letter and return it to us through mail. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Here are some highlights:

- In Adrift, author Brian Murphy – Washington Post journalist, award-winning foreign correspondent, and bureau chief for the Associated Press in Europe and the Middle East – shares the untold story of a sinking ship and its lone survivor with the help of recovered journals and newspaper clippings.
- In The Death of Hitler, author Lana Parshina – producer and director of Svetlana about Svetlana, a prestige film that universities such as Yale and Harvard use in classrooms – and author Jean-Christophe Brisard are award-winning journalists who have uncovered new Soviet material to add to the history of Hitler and his death. This book has global interest, as foreign rights have been sold in ten countries.
- In Heavy Duty, author K.K. Downing – founding member of the heavy metal band Judas Priest – teams up with Mark Eglinton to share the first ever memoir written by this influential and popular band. The band has over 4.5 million likes on Facebook and over 69,000 followers on Twitter.
- In Matters of Vital Interest, author Eric Lerner shares personal stories of his forty-year-long friendship with renowned Leonard Cohen after his passing.
- In Beyond the Call, author and USA Today journalist Eileen Rivers, tells the story of three women who changed the course of the war in Afghanistan by working with the local women to restore their village.
- In Bring It On Home, Mark Blake – former assistant editor of Q magazine – shares the first authorized biography of rock star manager Peter Grant, best known for his work with Led Zeppelin.

- In Pregnancy, Childbirth, and the Newborn, written by several established women in childcare and nursing, is an up-to-date, complete guide for mothers with several different pregnancy outcomes, including adoption and surrogacy.
- In Let's Talk About Death (Over Dinner), founder of Convivium, Michael Hebb offers practical advice about the one topic that everyone wonders about, Death. He has collaborated with other award-winning authors, and inspired by his conversations with his dad, he has completed this book and is ready for publishing.
- In Provisions, sisters Michelle and Suzanne Rousseau create vibrant Caribbean recipes while still maintaining the vegetarian lifestyle.
- Family therapist and YouTube sensation Kati Morton writes her new self-help book, Are U Ok?, answering the most commonly asked questions about mental health and care.
- The Periodic Table of Feminism, written by journalist Marisa Bate, takes a new look at feminist movements by using chemistry to add a different twist and perspective on the topic.
- In Invisible Girls, author and psychologist Dr. Patti Feuereisen, offers her readers the idea and possibility of recovery and justice for sexual abuse and assault.
- In Everything is Negotiable, university professor Dr. Meg Myers Morgan advises her female readers on how to take a stand and change their way of thinking to avoid the feeling of being stuck.
- In Boys, Rachel Giese – editor-at-large for Chatelaine – examines how boys are being swept away into toxic masculinity culture and offers solutions to this rising problem
- In The Chaos Cure, New York Times Bestselling author and internet sensation Marla Cilley advises her readers on ways to clean their house to feel comfortable for others to come over.
- In Body Positive Power, debut author and Instagram star Megan Jayne Crabbe shares advice on how to shut toxic social media out when it comes to body image and instead how to embrace and love the body you are in now.

With thanks for your continued support,

Peyton Sammons
 Senior Director of Publicist
 207.456.2345
 pspub@gmail.com

